- Some individual lots are charged an annexation fee. Check with the City Planning Division to verify whether your lot will have this fee and what the amount will be.
- Your lot may be on one of the local water Irrigation Districts rather than city water. If so, any water cap or meter fees are paid directly to them. Please contact your district for the amounts.

NOTE: The Building Permit Fees listed above for the square footages are approximate and may not have taken into consideration all the properties of your plans. There may be other fees associated with your project that may not be covered on these handouts. Contact the City of Post Falls with any questions or for additional information.
