Jason Faulkner, Finance Director

Post Falls Finance Director Jason Faulkner announced the City received a Distinguished Budget Presentation Award for the fifth time. The Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA) presented the award for the City's Annual Budget FY 2018. The Award is the highest form of recognition in governmental budgeting and recognizes the significant achievement by government agencies meeting the highest standards for preparation of state and local government financial reporting.

The City prepares three major financial documents for the City Council and citizens each year. The Budget Book presents the City's adopted annual budget, listing priorities, goals and challenges. The Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR) communicates the City's financial story in depth, and the Annual Report to Citizens (PAFR) is designed to communicate the City's financial story for the general public who may not have a financial background.

The City has received excellence awards from GFOA for the CAFR for 20 years, and the PAFR for 11 years. All three documents are available on the City's website at www.postfallsidaho.org.

The Government Finance Officers Association is a major professional association servicing the needs of more than 20,000 appointed and elected local, state/provincial and federal officials. The association is headquartered in Chicago, Illinois, with offices in Washington D.C.
