Memorial Day at Evergreen Cemetery

Memorial Day, May 25th, men and women who died while serving in the military will be honored at Evergreen Cemetery at 2834 N Spokane St. in Post Falls. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, the format for the annual Memorial Day ceremony at Evergreen Cemetery was changed to meet current State protocol.

The American Legion Post 143 will post flags on veterans' graves beginning Friday morning, 5/22, and remain through Memorial Day evening.

On Monday, May 25th, American Legion Post 143 members will be at Evergreen Cemetery from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. to hand out Memorial Day brochures. At 10 a.m., 12 p.m. and 2 p.m. taps will be played and the bell will toll. The public is encouraged to place wreaths at the wall. Post 143 is offering 2' yellow ribbons for messages to be written and placed at the bottom of the flags. Ribbons are available at Post 143 and will also be available at Evergreen Cemetery on Memorial Day.

Flags and wreaths will be removed Monday evening at approximately 6 p.m.
